1.0 Introduction

1.1 Definitions

Employees	All staff, contractors, consultants and temporary workers of the Pacific Energy group of companies (Group).
Manager	An individual employee's direct supervisor/manager
CEO	Chief Executive Officer

1.2 General Statement of Policy

The Group is committed to fostering a corporate culture that is fair and inclusive, and embraces and promotes diversity among its employees, consultants, senior management and Board.

This commitment applies to all areas of our employment practices including recruitment, selection, promotion and development of employees. The Group seeks to have the best person in each job by matching our people's skills and motivations with clear, predefined, job-related criteria.

1.3 Purpose

The company is committed to providing a work environment where differences are respected and all employees are treated with dignity, courtesy and respect.

The Group specifically prohibits discrimination on the basis of age, race, disability, ethnicity, marital or family status, nationality, religion, sex, sexual orientation or any other characteristic protected by law.

These principles extend to all employment decisions including recruiting and hiring, training and promotion, remuneration, and workforce reductions.

All employment decisions are based on the individual applicant or employee's qualifications, experience, knowledge and skills as they relate to the particular job specification.

All employees have an obligation to support and respect equity, workplace diversity, ethical practices, workplace safety and help to prevent unlawful discrimination and harassment in their workplaces.

The Group will strive to identify and eliminate any discriminatory practices both direct and indirect within the workplace including Board appointments and representations, and will take action against inappropriate workplace behaviours.

1.4 Scope

It is the responsibility of the Group employees to comply with this policy.

This policy applies to all Group employees, contractors and visitors.

2.0 Diversity

Diversity recognises, respects and values differences based on gender, ethnicity, colour, age, race, religion, disability, national origin and sexual orientation. It includes a range of individual characteristics and experiences, such as leadership and communications style, career path, life experience, educational background, marital status, parental status and other variables that influence personal perspectives.

These personal perspectives result in different approaches being taken on various issues which arise, and diversity is therefore also about diversity of thought. The Group employs people on the basis that the person to fill a position is the best person to perform the duties for that position. Where applicants for a position are of equal standing, the Group will consider diversity in determining which applicant to appoint to the position.

3.0 Equal Opportunity

Equal Opportunity requires all individuals to be treated fairly and similarly without prejudice or unfair preference being given to a person or group, and embraces the relevant provisions of the various Australian Federal and State Equal Opportunity and Anti-Discrimination Acts.

The Group promotes acceptance and recognises the equality of all people by ensuring that all employees receive fair and equal consideration. The Group is committed to ensuring that its recruitment, promotion and other employment practices are based on merit and result in the appointment, and promotion, of the best person for the job in every case.

4.0 Responsibilities

Employees at all levels are required to maintain compliance with this policy as well as any associated policies, procedures and processes.

This policy applies to our recruitment and employment practices, including talent and performance management processes, development opportunities, and our remuneration structure.

All supervisors and managers are expected to embrace and build diversity into their teams, and to demonstrate commitment to fostering a work environment where people feel valued, included, and able to reach their potential.

5.0 Policy Implementation

5.1 Breach of this Policy

Failure to comply with the principles of this policy could result in appropriate disciplinary actions, including termination. Additionally, individuals may be subject to loss of Group access and privileges.

5.2 Policy Review

The CEO will monitor the effectiveness and review the implementation of this policy, considering its suitability, adequacy and effectiveness. Any improvements identified will be made as soon as possible.

All employees are responsible for the success of this policy and should ensure they use it to disclose any suspected wrongdoing.

Employees are invited to comment on this policy and suggest ways in which it might be improved. Comments, suggestions and queries should be addressed to the Company Secretary.

This policy will be reviewed annually by 20 December.

5.3 Dissemination of Policy

A copy of this policy will be provided to each employee upon commencement of employment and additional copies will be made available upon request.
